Am I Teacher Material?

Charles Coats (04/27/1997)

We have been instructed by God to "GO TEACH" (Matthew 28:19; Mark 16:15; 2 Timothy 2:2). God has cautioned us concerning the great responsibility that lies on the shoulders of the teacher (James 3). Put these two together and we can see that since there is such a tremendous responsibility in teaching and we must teach, then we need to prepare ourselves to teach.

Often, when it comes to teaching, we try to think of all the reasons we cannot teach, especially when it comes to teaching in our Bible classes. In reality, we, like Moses of old, could come up with a lot of "reasons" for not being able to teach. However, as in Moses' case, God will not be pleased with us (cf. Exodus 4). When God gives us a command, He knows we can do it.

Instead of trying to figure out why we cannot teach, let us not why we know we can teach:

1. "We can talk" - One thing I have noticed is that we do not seem to have any trouble talking to one another. One of the necessaries for teaching is the ability to communicate. We do not have any problem in this area.
2. "We love God" - At least, we say we do. If we truly love God, then we will fulfill His commandments (John 14:15).
3. "We want others to go to Heaven" - No one will make it to Heaven unless they obey God's word. They will not obey God's word unless they hear God's word. If we want others to go to Heaven, we will have to instruct them in God's desire for man.
4. "We have time for everything we really want to do" - Have you ever noticed, whether "tired" or "busy" or "late", we still make time to do what we want to do. After a hard day at work, we will still clean up around the house. After a long week, we wills till go to a ball game, a play, or some such thing. We always seem to have time to take our children or grandchildren somewhere. If we are working on one of "our" projects, we will work long hours and late into the night to finish it. Time is something everyone has the same amount of. God expects us to "redeem the time" (Ephesians 5:16).
5. "We have a knowledge of God's word" - Would it not be a shame if someone discovered a cure for some dreaded disease and kept it a secret? We have the cure for sin. Do we dare to keep it secret? Maybe we need to adopt Paul's attitude - "yea, woe is unto me if I preach not the gospel!" (1 Corinthians 9:16)
