WHAT DOES THE NEW YEAR HOLD FOR YOU?

Charles Coats

While the difference between December 31st and January 1st is only a date on a calendar, to many people, the coming of the new year is a great event in their lives. They look at it as an opportunity to correct those things that did not work out in the old year and to make a new beginning in the new year.

Often people look to the future and have plans (both small and great) for the upcoming year. They look with excitement at what the new year holds for them. Which brings us to the title of this article – What does the new year hold for you?

Will it be the year that you resolve to attend all the services in order to be a better servant of Christ, to gain more knowledge of God’s word, and to be an encouragement to others?

Will it be the year that you resolve to teach others the gospel to give them the opportunity to go to Heaven?

Will it be the year that you resolve to be a better student of the Bible?

Will it be the year that you resolve to remove worldly things from your life?

Will it be the year that you resolve to keep your eyes on Heaven, never wavering from the goal set before you?

What does the new year hold for you? To help us all in answering this question, please consider Heb. 12:1,2; Col. 3:1,2; Phil. 3:14,15.

Let us all resolve that this new year will hold for us a more diligent and faithful service to Christ.

ONE DAY WE WILL

Charles Coats

One day, we will face Judgment (Heb. 9:27).

One day, we will answer for what we have done and said (Ecc. 12:14).

One day, we will understand that the world and the things therein are not important (Lk. 16:19-31).

Are we ready for that “One Day”?
