“But His Delight Is In The Law Of The Lord”

Charles Coats (07/13/2003)

The Psalmist talked about the blessed man in Psalms 1. This man avoids the way of the wicked and delights and meditates in the law of the Lord (Psalm 1: 1,2). As I contemplate this last portion, I cannot help but be amazed at how many people say they love God's word, but in reality, they do not.

Consider the following:

1. The Bible teaches us there is only one church (Ephesians 4: 4; 1: 22,23). Yet many believe that one church is as good as another.
2. The Bible teaches us that we must keep the commandments of Jesus (John 14: 15). Yet many believe they can do what they believe.
3. The Bible teaches us that faith alone will not save (James 2: 14-26). Yet many believe that all one has to do to be saved is believe in Jesus (“accept Him as their personal savior”).
4. The Bible teaches us that baptism is necessary in order for us to be saved (Acts 2: 38; 1 Peter 3: 21). Yet, many believe that they are saved either before or without baptism.

We could continue on with examples of what man believes and show that they are contrary to what God teaches. Yet those who believe things contrary to God's word will tell us that they believe the Bible to be God's word and that we must follow it.

How can we say that we delight in the word of the Lord when we reject it time and again? The true test of one's faithfulness is whether that person will do ALL that God has commanded (1 Timothy 4: 16; Matthew 7: 21).

If any of us follow teachings that are not in the Bible, then we cannot say we truly delight in God's word. Ask yourself as you examine the church you are a member of or the beliefs you practice – Is this group found in the Bible, and are these beliefs in keeping with God's word? If the answer to either or both is NO, then you need to turn from these and turn to God.

One of the most difficult things to do is to give up personal beliefs. But if we delight in God's law, we will, without hesitation, give up our personal beliefs and conform our lives to what God has given us in His word.
