Judgment

Charles Coats (04/27/2003)

“And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal” (Matthew 25: 46)

What we will hear at Judgment:

For the righteous: “Well done, thou good and faithful servant... enter thou into the joy of thy lord” (Matthew 25: 21,23).

For the unrighteous: “And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth” (Matthew 25: 30). “...I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity” (Matthew 7: 23).

It is important for us to recognize which group we are in. It is not good for us to fool ourselves into believing we are righteous only to find out at judgment that we are not. The Bible teaches us that we can know we have eternal life (1 John 5: 13). We can know by the things God has written to us, therefore we need to study to show ourselves approved unto God (2 Timothy 2: 15).

Many will fool themselves into thinking that all they have to do is have faith and they will be saved. Yet, the Bible teaches us that the devils believe and tremble (James 2: 19). The devils are not saved.

Many will fool themselves into thinking that having a good conscience (or good intentions) will save them. Yet, the Bible teaches us that one can live in all good conscience before God and still be lost (Acts 23: 1). Paul certainly believed he was serving God when he persecuted the church.

Many will fool themselves into thinking that they do not have to be baptized because it is a work and you cannot “work your way to Heaven”. Yet, the Bible teaches us that we are to work out our own salvation (Philippians 2: 12) and that we will be judged by our deeds (Romans 2: 6; 2 Corinthians 5: 10).

Many will fool themselves into thinking that one church is as good as another. Yet, the Bible teaches us that there is only one church (Ephesians 4: 4) of which Jesus is the savior (Ephesians 5: 23).

We must never fool ourselves. We must conform our lives to the teachings of God or we will be cast out in Judgment.
