Salvation Is In No Other

Charles Coats (02/02/2003)

People are looking everywhere for salvation. True followers of Christ are far outnumbered by the followers of others. Catholicism has its millions; Islam has its millions; Buddhism and others have their billions. Yet while man is looking everywhere, the Bible has already told us where salvation is.

In Acts 4:12, Peter teaches the people of his day (and us today) that salvation is in Jesus and in no other. Peter further reminds us that there is no other name on Earth wherein men will find salvation.

Trusting in self, many will go to eternal damnation thinking they are right. Looking to Allah or Buddha, millions will deceive not only themselves but others and will be lost eternally. Following the Pope and other world religious leaders, men, women, and children will walk “comfortably” into outer darkness.

Following Jesus is where salvation is. Let us work to get this message to all in the world (Mark 16:15,16)

“Maybe We Have Spread Ourselves A Little Thin”

Charles Coats (01/26/2003)

This expression is generally used when a person or organization is trying to do too many things at one time. It would be easy for us to say we have spread ourselves a little too thin considering we are starting a new program to reach out into this community and beyond; we are trying to help reestablish the work in Sheridan; we will be having mailouts, a gospel meeting, campaigns, etc. throughout the year.

While we are small in number, we are big in heart. While it will be impossible for one or two to accomplish all we desire, as a group we can certainly do it. The church in Webberville will prosper as long as every member is involved in the work. There is something everyone can do, regardless of education, sex, or age.

As we have noted in previous studies, the church in the New Testament grew both spiritually and physically because of the involvement of its members. Immediately after the church is established, we see that they continued steadfastly (Acts 2:42).

As you are asked to help out in a particular area, please do not hesitate to do so. Make the work of the church the priority in your life.

*So we built the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof; for the people had a mind to work. (Nehemiah 4:6)
